01 · INTRODUCTION

YOUR TICKET TO SASKATOON'S SOUND

Hello Saskatoon music lovers — welcome to issue number one. What a week to launch. The SaskTel Saskatchewan Jazz Festival has taken over the city: Victoria Park is humming, the Bassment is stacked night after night, and somewhere between Bruce Cockburn under the open sky and a four-band punk bill at the Green Room, there's a version of this week for every kind of ear in Saskatoon. The city couldn't have set the table better.

And while you're out being part of the magic, remember Studio 12 Music is proudly based right here in Saskatoon — fostering local talent, offering top-notch musical education, and playing the supportive backstage crew for your artistic journey.

Got an update, a suggestion, or a hot tip on the next big local artist? We're all ears — reach us at eguide@s12.ca.
